Bristol Clean Air zone - likely to be delayed again

Still to be announced but the likely start date will be November or December 2022

What is already available and what the council are planning to do.

You may be able to apply for an exemption from Bristol's Clean Air Zone charge if you meet the eligibility criteria and own a vehicle that does not meet the zone's emission standards.

There will be temporary exemptions specific to Bristol as well as national exemptions for all UK Clean Air Zones.

Check whether your vehicle meets the zone's emission standards on the government's online vehicle checker (GOV.UK).

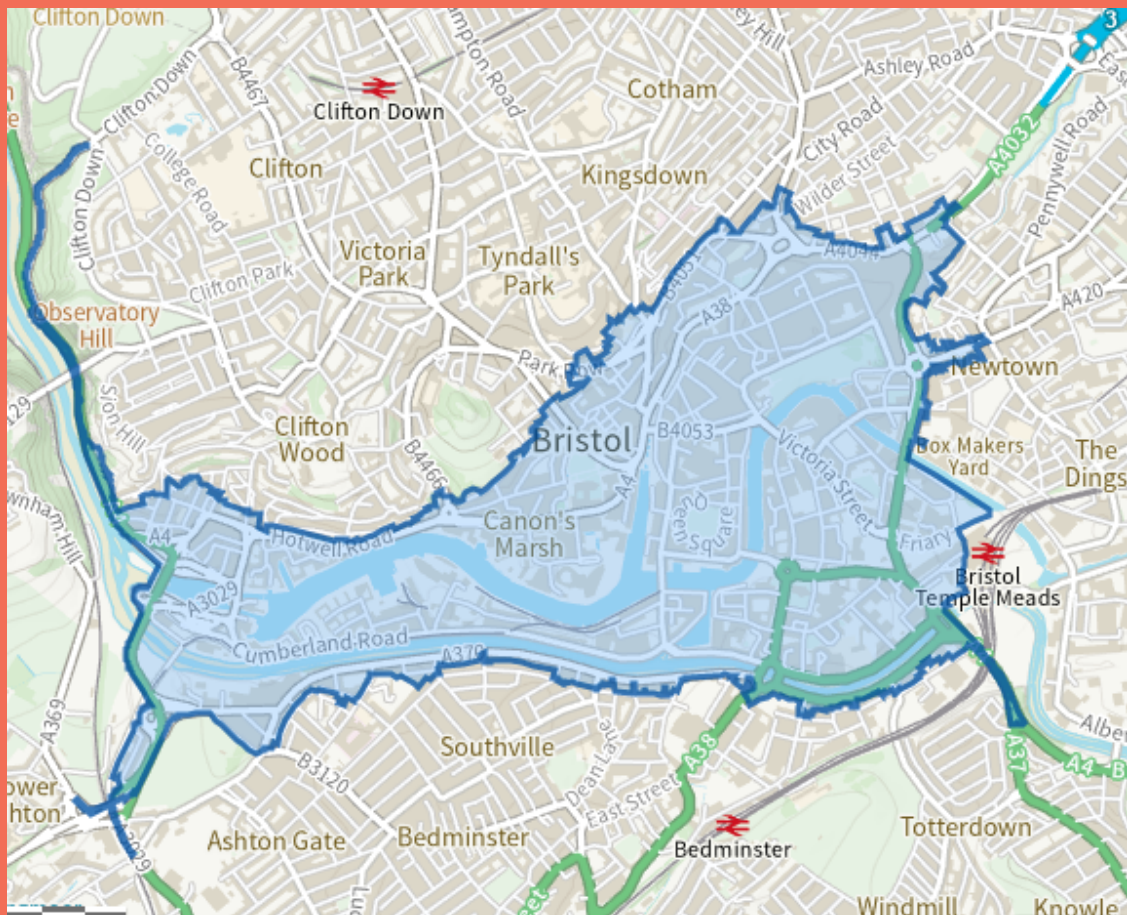

Bristol exemptions

There will be temporary exemptions in Bristol until the end of 2022 for eligible groups, including:

- Residents in the zone
- People working within the zone and earning less than £26,000 a year
- Blue Badge holders
- Patients and visitors attending hospitals in the zone, they can register their vehicle at their appointment to avoid the charge

Melrose

MELROSE

Our accounting partners at Melrose have a friendly reminder to you all that P11D forms for Directors are due to be completed and filed by the 6th July to avoid any unnecessary fines. If you need any help with this or your accounts and payroll in general, then please get in touch with Louise De Swart at Melrose on louise.deswart@melrosegroun.co.uk or 0117 3251520.
